Dear Mrs. Mayer:

I apologize that so much time passed since you were kind enough to write to me on 3/28/99. I had to complete research to satisfy a publisher - try to supervise a student's dissertation at a German university, and deal with the debilities which age of 86 brings along. The family information in the Simmons more or less fits in with the data I have. (Alas, the complete family tree which I once, before the war, gave to Louis Simon, I never got back since I did not remain in N.Y. for long and then World War II - war crimes investigations, etc.

However, I still have some data your family may be interested in:

My grandfather (on my mother's side) was Max Meyer, born in Schwaga 31. 8. 1851.

He died in Göttingen 10. 4. 1922.

His father was Marthal Meyer, born in 1814 - died 7/8/1874. He was married to Carolina Lippman who was born in 1813, died on 15 March 1882.

Marthal Meyer's father was Heineman Löt Meyer born in Schwaga on 23 March 1802. Died in Schwaga on 3/9/1888. His father was over

Loeb Meyer, born in 1770; died in Schwaga 3/4/1842.

He was married to Sabina Simon who died in Schwaga in 1831.

In my parents' home in Göttingen there were two rather large paintings (in 1938 - Kistal Markt) destroyed among them of my parents, art works, portraits of Michael Meyer (my great grandfather) and wife (Carolina, nee Lippman). I have photographs of those paintings and, this morning had them a bit enlarged and I'm enclosing copies for your husband + family.
Many, many years ago, I was a small child (born in 1918) we visited Schwaga and Suhl.

Please, forgive my fading handwriting
+ regards to your husband + you.

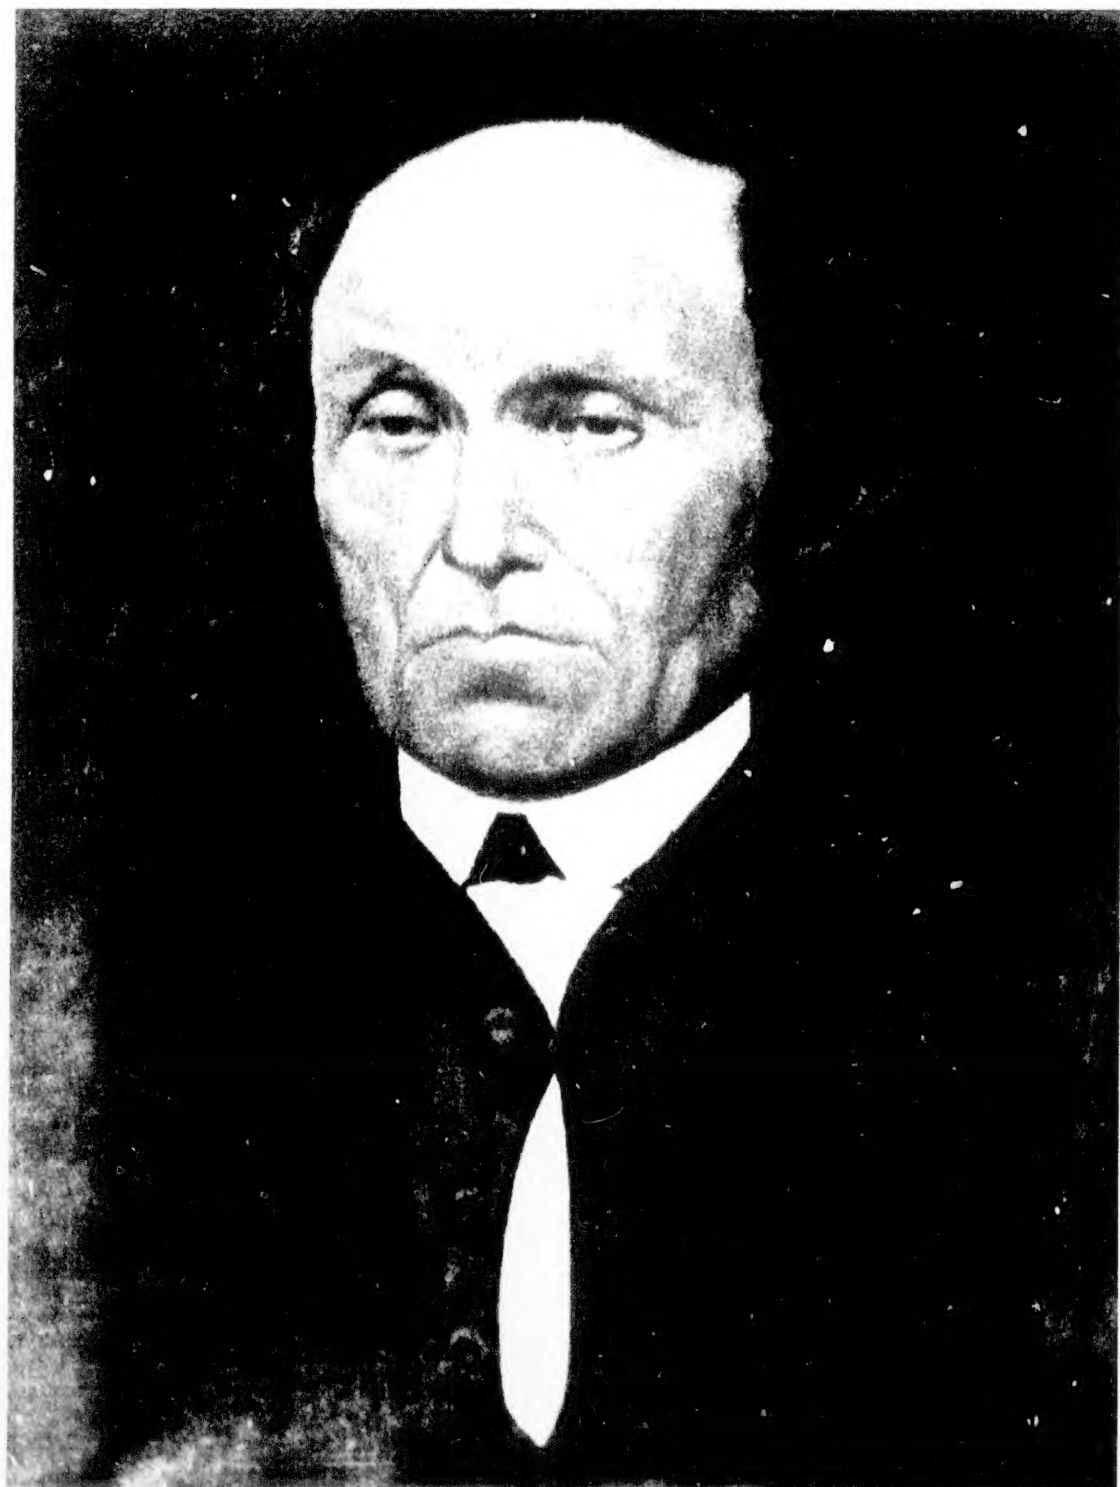

Sincerely,

Albert Rosenberg

You are correct:

The spelling of names in those years
long gone by, is very variable.

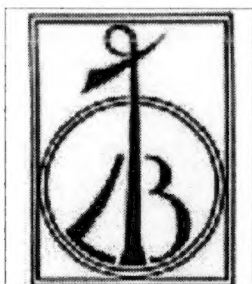

P.S. After we liberated Buchenwald there was a liberated prisoner: Dr. Hermann Brill who was among those who helped me for almost two months put together our investigation report on that camp. He felt I had helped him regain his survival. Then he became head of the Thüringer state government - I always intended to ask him to put some of his staff to pull together more detail on my Schwaga ancestors. I never followed up, however, alas:

Machal Meyer, 1814 - 1874

Carolina Meyer, 1813-1882
nee Lippman
